

What is God Like? \(pt 3\)

This is part 3 in my current Sunday School class called “What is God Like?” (If you’d like to learn more about the series, check this post.)

This week we finished introducing some terms and concepts and began looking at our first attribute: aseity. Aseity simply means that God is self-existent and independent. God exists simply by virtue of his own nature.

- “What is God Like? - Exploring the Attributes of God, Part 3”

Links: audio ... handout

And as always, if you end up following along with us, let me know . If you have any feedback, I’d love to hear it!

Series: What is God Like?

This is a summary page for my Sunday School class called “What is God Like?”

Here is the description I proposed:

Christianity isn’t only concerned with knowing God, but also with knowing about God. Unfortunately, when it comes to this topic, many of us have a theology that isn’t much more sophisticated than what we learned from songs we sang as kids. Studying the Doctrine of God helps us understand questions like:

“Who is God?”

“What is He like?”

“What does it mean to be omniscient or all-powerful?”

You may be surprised to learn that our understanding of the Doctrine of God has far-reaching ramifications in our understanding of Christianity and our daily lives. In this class, we will particularly focus on God's attributes.

(Although this is a potentially deep topic, the class will be accessible for high-schoolers and up.)

At the encouragement of several friends who are unable to attend the class every week, I have been recording and posting each class, along with class notes. (See each post listed below.) Eventually I will post my teaching outline as well, since I have heard there are those who may be interested in using these tools for their own study and/or teaching.

If you end up following along with us, let me know . If you have any feedback, I'd love to hear it!

Here are the links:

[catlist name="attributes-of-god" orderby=title order=asc]

UPDATE: I am currently experimenting with switching to a podcast setup. To continue following this class, subscribe to our podcast here.

What is God Like? \(pt 2\)

This is part 2 in my current Sunday School class called "What is God Like?" (If you'd like to check out the description, check this post.)

This week's we ended up spending most of our time on the topic of God's transcendence and immanence. Both concepts are taught in scripture, and both are true observations about God. Since they sometimes seem to conflict in a way, we spent some time looking at that tension. Specifically, we looked at various areas of church life where one has received more focus than the other. In the end, the takeaway is that God is both transcendent and immanent, and we ought to strive to balance our view of God to include both aspects. After that, we continued with a couple other concepts that will help us to understand God's attributes as we discuss them in coming weeks.

- “What is God Like? - Exploring the Attributes of God, Part 2”

Links: audio ... handout

And as always, if you end up following along with us, let me know . If you have any feedback, I'd love to hear it!

A Brief Biblical Case for Apologetics

I was recently asked for a list of memory verses relating to apologetics. Deciding which ones to keep and which to exclude turned out to be quite a challenge. Ultimately, I decided to list them topically in a way that laid out the case for apologetics, with examples, as briefly as possible. Obviously there are more I could have included, but I didn't want this to get any longer than it already is! If you have a favorite passage that teaches or supports apologetics, feel free to add it in the comments.

What is apologetics, and how should we do it?

- Be prepared to explain your beliefs

Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect... - 1 Peter 3:15 (NIV)

- Pick your battles, but don't avoid conflict

Have nothing to do with foolish, ignorant controversies; you know that they breed quarrels. And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. - 2 Timothy 2:23-24

Why should we do apologetics?

- At its root, Christianity is about truth, not feelings

For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. - 1 Corinthians 15:3-8

- Paul repeatedly said to

...contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints. - Jude 1:3

holding fast the faithful word which is in accordance with the teaching, so that he will be able both to exhort in sound doctrine and to refute those who contradict. - Titus 1:9

- Christianity involves training

'Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,' - Matthew 28:19

Note: KJV says "go and teach..." Strong academic focus. Greek word for Disciple (Strong's 3100) means, "intransitively to become a pupil; transitively to disciple, that is, enroll as scholar: - be disciple, instruct, teach."

- Being prepared protects the believer

"that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes." - Ephesians 4:14

- It protects our fellow believers

...preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. - 2 Timothy 4:2-4

- To persuade the unbeliever

Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity. Let your speech always be with grace, as though seasoned with salt, so that you will know how you should respond to each person. - Colossians 4:5-6

Examples of apologetics in the bible

- Jesus used evidence to assure John the Baptist that he was the Messiah

Now when John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" And Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. And blessed is the one who is not offended by me." - Matthew 11:2-6

- Apologetic reasoning was Paul's primary method

And Paul went in, as was his custom, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ." - Acts 17:2-3

- John wrote his gospel as an apologetic/proof of Christianity

Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. - John 20:30-31

- The reason for Paul's imprisonment

"...I am put here for the defense of the gospel." - Philippians 1:16

The importance of the life of the mind

- Christians are to be concerned with the life of the mind

'And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' - Mark 12:30

- The renewal of the mind

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. - Romans 12:2

- The battlefield of the mind

We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ - 2 Corinthians 10:5

What is God Like? (pt 1)

Today, I started a new Sunday School class called “What is God Like?”

Here is the description I proposed:

Christianity isn't only concerned with knowing God, but also with knowing about God. Unfortunately, when it comes to this topic, many of us have a theology that isn't much more sophisticated than what we learned from songs we sang as kids. Studying the Doctrine of God helps us understand questions like:

“Who is God?”

“What is He like?”

“What does it mean to be omniscient or all-powerful?”

You may be surprised to learn that our understanding of the Doctrine of God has far-reaching ramifications in our understanding of Christianity and our daily lives. In this class, we will particularly focus on God's attributes.

(Although this is a potentially deep topic, the class will be accessible for high-schoolers and up.)

At the encouragement of several friends who are unable to attend the class every week, I will be recording it and posting it here weekly along with notes. Initially, I'll share class audio and handouts, but my goal is to get my teaching outline posted as well, since I have heard there are those who may be interested in using these tools for their own study and/or teaching. Here are the links:

▪ “What is God Like? - Exploring the Attributes of God, Part 1”

Links: audio ... handout

If you end up following along with us, let me know . If you have any feedback, I'd love to hear it!

